*Practices are on Thursday evenings 6 PM until 8 PM

Shout with joy to the Lord all the earth,
Break into song, sing praise.
Sing praise to the lord with the harp
With the harp play a melodious song.
With Trumpets and sound of the horn
Shout with joy to the King, the Lord...

Expectations

Singers: Those who can learn songs either by reading music or learning it by ear through weekly rehearsals. Choir members should be able to match pitch.

Cantors: These people should be able to read music and have an aptitude for correct pronunciation and diction. The Cantor's proclaim the word during the Responsorial Psalm and are also members of the choir.

Instrumentalists: For those proficient with a musical instrument who can for the most part accompany they choir with competence.

Choir Practice: It would be expected that members of the choir would attend the Thursday Night Practices. Understandably there may be times when this is not possible the expectation is that the choir member would attend more often than not.
